

Please introduce saltwater licences, for the cost of a few lures I would be happy to see less nets in populated areas. I would also like to see an increase in commercial line fishing (not long lines either, dorys with 1 or 2 people and hand lines not every industry should be automated, here is one that could employ a lot more people.

Sent from Mail for Windows 10