

To whom it may concern,

I am thoroughly disgusted at the proposed draft plan for Norfolk Island Marine Park and want it completely scrapped.

In its place I want the 2016 reviews recommendations for Norfolk Island's Marine Park implemented.

Norfolk Island is one of the few pristine places left on Earth and the Pacific is suffering enough thanks to the Fukushima nuclear disaster.

Yours sincerely
Benjamin Hayes