In relation to the proposed plan to reduce Australia's marine national parks IS an absolute disgrace!

Opening more areas to be used would Not benefit fisheries but only reduce marine life and have catastrophic impact on these habitats and species.

It's a disgrace that this is even being considered by the government and I urge that this be ruled out from ever happening.

We are losing the Great Barrier Reef! And the government should be doing everything in their power to save this natural Australian wonder instead of allowing coal mining to kill it all!!!
