

Hi

Where is the logic in your plan to cut back marine protection? The lack of logic on the part of the current government in environmental matters is appalling and a major cause for concern. Isn't someone in management thinking through the consequences?

Please reply. And please don't send me a standard reply that avoids the key points.

Sincerely
Kerry Avenell