

Dear Sir/Madam,

Marine reserves are vital to keep the viability of fish stocks healthy for future generations to enjoy a good seafood meal. Without the reserves, the historical record of overfishing in the oceans will destroy what is left left of pristine untouched oceans.

Please reconsider and restore all Marine Parks back to their original sizes and start work on expanding them even further. They are incredibly important.

Best regards,

Joseph Zagari
0411244427