

This submission is in relation to proposed changes to Australia's Marine Sanctuaries that were put in place in 2012.

I urge the Government not to reduce the area of protection. The rate of over-exploitation of marine populations is causing ecological collapse which ultimately affects the viability of commercial fishing operations anyway.

Please continue to provide sufficient protection to marine ecosystems.

Thank you,
Jean Brennan
Sydney

Sent from my iPhone