

Stop winding back ocean protection for the likes of Marion reef in the coral sea and others as this is a backward step. You are making it harder and harder to support your Government as you are showing that you do not care for our natural environment.

Sincerely

Max Gregory