

To the Prime Minister & Federal Government,

The proposed cuts to sites of marine protection will have both negative environmental as well as economic consequences.

The science is in.

Protected areas increase fish stocks and maintain values for all users.

Short term economic gains of removing protection will end in tears.

Respectfully yours,

John & Shirley Gunson.