

Submission Dear Mr Burke, I urge you please to rethink your decision and not to cut back on the ocean protected areas that are currently in place. These are vital for sea mammals and for the environment, for us all now and for generations that follow.