

I am devastated and completely shocked that a government in today's world would even consider reducing our precious marine sanctuaries! The future of the fisheries industry and marine tourism is in danger if you proceed with this reduction. Please from the depths of my heart reconsider the consequences of these actions.

Sincerely
Janine hew

Sent from my iPhone