

I'm sending this in the hope that your plans to reduce Australia's current ocean conservation areas will continue to be protected.

However don't have much confidence that your government has the natural environment as a priority. If these areas are not protected they will be exploited that's what humans do.... and your Govt will be remembered for doing nothing.... which will be associated with your names... not much of a legacy for your children or Australia.

Thanks

Marilyn Taylor

Sent from my iPhone