

Dear Sir/madam

We need more marine protections, not less.

Please stop cutting our marine protections.

Ordinary Australians like myself value our natural heritage and want to protect it for future generations.

Those in a position to provide protection, such as yourself, must prioritize any actions which will ensure the safety of our oceans and marine life.

Yours sincerely

Sue Vetma

Sent from my iPhone