

Dear Management Planners,

I am writing to express my full support for keeping strong protections on Australia's Coral Sea protected areas. Maintaining these protections is the only way to ensure the biodiversity values will remain into the future. These areas support both local and international tourism and also provide stock for species to re-populate other non-protected areas. Australia must remain a world leader in protecting its ocean habitat.

Thank you
Christina Howley

PO Box 914
Cooktown, Qld 4895