

Dear Sirs/ Madams,

I am horrified you are planning to significantly reduce the marine park network. This at a time when marine life is under increasing threat from ocean warming and pollution of all types - you must be aware of the parlous state of the Great Barrier Reef after 2 enormous summer bleaching events.

Do you want to go down in history as one on the most destructive Australian Governments of all time?

Yours sincerely,

Leslie Healy