

Please don't give up the protections on our oceans. Scientists have been warning for ages that our oceans are warming and this bodes very badly for us. Fish stocks are depleted, the Great Barrier Reef is bleaching and many island nations are very vulnerable to rising sea levels.

Our children and grandchildren deserve this from us.

Sincerely,

Patricia & Bill Hucker