

Dear Mr Frydenberg

I am really upset about your plans to take the marine life preservation backwards. Why are you destroying what was helping. We may not be experts out here but we do know that longlining and halving our wonderful marine parks is a catastrophe. Please pay attention to our experts to get the information you need to keep Australian marine life safe.

Thank you for your attention

Veronica Kroon

From Ronnie's Ipad