

We can't export the scenery so we have to import the tourist as said by the boss of the first railway in Canada now if they can do that and gain employment, {TAXES] why does Australia have so much trouble with your lot understanding that tourist come here to see this country not mine fields of rubbish that you seem to want it to become