

Dear Mr Frydenberg

If the below is true, even partially, then you are accountable for jeopardising this country and ultimately this planet. How can you live with this, knowing that there will be generations soon who will have nothing but a wasteland instead of sustainable food and beauty.