

Dear Minister

It is with disappointment that I hear that your government (which I voted for) has taken the decision to cut back protection of our oceans.

Now more than ever we have to leave areas of our planet free from big business. You may be helping a small sector with your decision in the short term, but you sure are hurting a very large sector with your decision in the long term. I am disappointed to say the least.

Regards

Oren Fischer