

Dear Minister,

I am appalled at the proposals to cut back marine protection around our coastline.

The decisions on Geographe Bay and on the Coral Sea areas really stand out as poor decisions.

The decisions being made cut back the breeding grounds on which our fishing industry depends. Do you want to destroy a vital renewable foodstock?

These decisions must be overturned urgently.

Alan Reynolds