

Dear Minister Frydenberg,

Please stop this recklessness! We should be setting an example for the rest of the world by increasing marine protection - not cutting it back!

Australia needs to protect our marine parks in order to ensure sustainability in our fishing industry as well as our highly prized and valuable ocean tourist industry.

It deeply saddens me to see this protection being wound back....

Don't!!!!

Sincerely

Gina Roberts