

Someone is going to make money out of the changes. Who will benefit, certainly not the eco systems. Possibly some commercial operation, who have no interest whatsoever in eco systems. If there is a buck to be made just get rid of the regulations. Save the eco systems for Gods sake, they are precious to mankind. Even China has started to understand and set aside a huge number of national parks instead of bulldozing them.

Rex Jessen
16 Phillips Close
Bentley 6102 WA
Mob 0416 224 064