

To Minister Frydenberg,

I am appalled at your decision as Environment Minister, to wind back protection in Australia's oceans.

Our Marine National Parks belong to us, and a responsible elected government is there in our name to protect them.

For the future of our oceans, I ask that you reconsider your decision.

Eileen Morton.