

Dear Minister,

The oceans need all the help we can give them. Please do not reduce the size of any of the proposed and existing marine parks around Australia, it would be catastrophic for a lot of sea life and entirely counterproductive.

Instead, why don't you leave a real legacy behind and strengthen and increase them. The Australian people and subsequent generations will thank you for doing so.

Yours,

Simon O'Hana

Hawthorne

Queensland