

Dear Mr Frydenberg ,

please don,t remove marine park protections already in place for the sake of a buck ($) . I would love to take my Grandchildren to some of these places as they grow and learn , but fear there may not be anything left to see ! I believe we all have a moral obligation to leave the Planet as good as we found it , not to desecrate for the personal gain of a greedy few . .

kind regards Chris Armstrong