

To the Minister Frydenberg,

Please do not make changes to the protection of our marine environment.

Show the rare foresight not often seen these days in our politicians to think of future generations of Australians.

We should be world leaders in protecting our natural assets, not frontrunners in the degradation of them.

Yours Sincerely,

Glen Rohweder