

Dear Minister Frydenberg

I would earnestly ask you to help ensure that any proposals to reduce marine protection does not proceed.

Overall current scientific evidence indicates beyond doubt that the health of our marine environment is degrading at an alarming rate. It is most important that every effort by made to halt this situation.

Kind regards
Howard Smith