

To Minister Frydenberg,

Dear Sir,

What on earth are you doing, if what I am hearing is true.

Why on earth would you remove any protection from our oceans and marine parks. You will move on and leave a disaster for future generations.

I am a Liberal voter and cannot understand this at all. I would love a response from you, saying this has not happened and will not happen.

Regards Helen Brister.