

Dear Minister Frydenberg

It is up to this generation right here and now to protect our oceans for the future. Not just for future generations but for a healthy biodiverse environment that is self sustaining. You have the power to do this. Please do not reduce our marine parks and make them vulnerable to misuse. Please protect our marine environments and show the world that Australia is serious about protecting our environment a huge resource for our economy.

Kind regards

Samantha willis

Samnmart@gmail.com

Sent from my iPhone