

Dear Minister Frydenberg,

The initial park extent for the Australian marine park system was carefully considered. To reduce it presumably for resource exploration purposes I believe is ill advised and not in the interests of future generations.

Yours sincerely

Aimee Kinchington