

Dear Minister,

What drives the government to cut back on marine national parks? This is exceptionally poor form at a time, when the ocean's fish population is under unprecedented pressure. Expanding the privileges of the few on the back of the nation's interest does not make good policy.

Regards,
Gottfried Otting

60 Munro St
Curtin, ACT 2605