

Dear Minister,

If the Liberal/Nationals don't show more environmental backbone and stop trying to put money and jobs ahead of the environment instead of realising that the environment creates jobs and is more important than money it will be the last time I vote Liberal. You have a moral obligation to protect our oceans for future generations and if you wind back their protection you are failing in your duty of care.

Jenny Oakley

Sent from Jenny's ipad