

Dear Mr Frydenberg, scientific reason supports Marine Sanctuaries... so should you, I would hope, as the marine environment needs protection. It seems that the Liberals and Nationals do not take science seriously, which is strange, I must say. But I guess policy makers who have suspect policies would seek to avoid facts. I think it's time science was treated with at least some respect by your government.

David Metzenthien.