

Our waters are under threat.

The last thing we need is for a Coalition government to stress and threaten them further.

Do the decent and sensible thing and protect our waters and the creatures that live in them.

Paul Murphy.