

Dear Sir/Madam

I am writing a few words to plead that you do not cut marine protection.

I was under the impression that Australian waters are being protected for our oceans' life and marine life but I understand that this is all under review.

I do not want trawling to be reintroduced - I want all reefs to be under national park status and I want our national parks to be doubled not halved.

Yours sincerely

Angela Hawes
ahhawes@gmail.com