

As a lifelong diver, I have seen firsthand the devastation brought about through over industrial scale over fishing of our Australian waters. The protected areas of Australia's coastline and reefs needs careful thought and rationalizing with an eye to the future conservation of marine habitat. Please rethink the massive reductions of protected marine areas.

Robert Bruce