

Sanctuaries are the only remaining bio diverse marine environments which will enable recovery of the dwindling resources which are being unsustainably being harvested from the oceans. The more biodiversity depletion the greater and quicker the fisheries will collapse. Look back at the extinction periods and the outcomes when biodiversity lowers below 40 percent. Your name will go down in history as part of the process to destroy the marine environment. Don't change the sanctuaries.

Deepergreen Pty Ltd
D. Bromilow
0417 132 045