

Dear Mr Turnbull,

I'm emailing you today to ask that you to stop cutting back our ocean protections. With climate change happening we should be doing more to protect our natural environment. Make a stand for the environment and make our marine national parks bigger. I'm also sick of seeing precious marine animals being killed by trawling, nets and drumlines.

Regards
Judy Smith
Glendalough WA 6016