

Dear Tony Burke, we need to protect our oceans. No legislation can be allowed that will compromise the health of the oceans. Australia is responsible to look after the ocean that surrounds us because how we treat our oceans impacts on the whole planet and effects humanity. We have no right to cause distress to the earth or the people living in it.

Yours faithfully,
Rebecca Wilson