

I am alarmed to hear that the Government is proposing to significantly reduce the size of marine parks in Australia.

At a time when fish stocks are being depleted significantly around the world, everything must be done to ensure we can continue to have fish available to consume. Marine parks play an important role in building fish stocks.

Peter LeCornu
105 Hannan Place
Ainslie ACT 2602

Get Outlook for iOS