

Please do not reduce the area of protected Marine environments in Australia. Environment and the Earth are the single most important aspect of maintaining quality of life. Not jobs, not mines, not growth, not greedy wealth. We need the Earth, we need the oceans, we have a responsibility to care for them, and you are in charge.

The oceans are sick. Do not make it worse. Protect more, not less.

Sincerely,

Katie McCloskey