

Marine Parks are essential for the survival of species and to have sustainable fisheries for commercial as well as recreational Fishers.
Please remember that we only borrow our environment from the next generations.
Thanks Mike Brandwood