

Re: Marine Management Planning

I had to rush this submission to you as soon as I found out about the winding back of the marine protection areas.

Please, take into account all future generations. Our generation is already witnessing incredible deterioration in the sustainability of this planet some of which we cannot undo. Please do not allow this rush to appease commercial vandals to be your legacy.

Thanks

Shane toohey