

Our oceans are amongst the best in the world. They need to be protected for their unique diversity and fascinating species.
One government should not be allowed to destroy the wonders of the sea.
Perhaps we should have a plebiscite on this issue.