

Good day, my name is Mick Connolly and I wish to make a submission regarding the planned reduction of Australia's marine reserves. As a long time angler and scuba diver I understand and appreciate the need for large marine reserves, with falling fish stocks worldwide and the rise in illegal fishing it would be a backward step to allow commercial fishing into these areas. Surely it is our duty to look after what is left of our once abundant fish stocks.

With regards M Connolly.

Sent from my iPhone