

To whom it may concern,

Now more than ever we should be scaling up our intensity in looking after our planet, especially the ocean.

The oceans have become massively polluted, fish numbers are dwindling and micro plastics are a huge problem.

Please help be the solution and if you're not going to further help the ocean, at least don't hinder it.

Thank you.

Regards,

Elizabeth Moreno

Sent from my iPhone