

This proposed huge reduction in the protected area of the Coral Sea will put additional stress on our marine environment which is already nearing breaking point. The proposed Carmichael mine is all the more reason for this protection to remain in place. We are selling our rich heritage for the equivalent of blankets and beads. Please reconsider.

Yours sincerely,
Mark Chapman.