

Government have a moral obligation to look after our Cultures and Mother Earth, they should not be exploiting Mother Earth to greedy companies who have a don't care attitude to what we have been given to look after for the next generation to enjoy.

Christine Finch.