

My name is Ewen Kloas, 55, of Berwick, Victoria.

The reduction of marine parks should not go ahead as our oceans are dying.

We need to ramp up more marine parks and protect the oceans even if it costs the fishing industry in the short term.

The long term consequences of not protecting the oceans are death.