

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am appalled to hear that there are plans to reduce the area of marine parks.

If anything, protected areas should be increased.

It makes sense to have areas where marine life can breed and replenish to make commercial fishing more sustainable and profitable.

Further marine parks provide for tourism opportunities.

Yours sincerely

Michael Begg